Story

S: Woohoo! It's story time.

K: Today's story is about the ant and the grasshopper.

One spring day a grasshopper was playing in a field.

GRASSHOPPER: Yoo-hoo!

He saw an ant working away.

ANT: Work, work, work, work. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. Workõ

GRASSHOPPER: Why are you working so hard? It is a beautiful day. Come play with me!

ANT: No. I think you should work with us and store food. Winter will be hard and long.

GRASSHOPPER: Why worry about the winter? I don't like to work. I like to play! Woohoo.

All spring the grasshopper did nothing but play. One day, in the summer, the grasshopper saw the ant again working hard carrying food.

GRASSHOPPER: Where are you going with all that food Ant?

ANT: We are storing food for winter. You should work with us. Winter will be hard and long.

GRASS: I don't like to work. I like to sing!

And so all summer the grasshopper did nothing but sing. Then autumn came and the leaves fell. He saw the ants again with corn and said.

GRASSHOPPER: Where are you going with all that food, Ant?

ANT: We are storing food for winter. You should work with us. Winter will be hard and long.

GRASSHOPPER: I don't like to work. I like to eat!

And so all autumn the grasshopper did nothing but eat, and he got fat. Then winter came. Snow fell, and the ants had so much food and were happy. But the grasshopper had nothing and so he died.
