

4. FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Welcome song

K: Welcome to our fun learning radio broadcast with Kiki and Mr. Suits!

This program was created in collaboration with Azyzah Educational and Interactive Theatre.

S: Nice to meet you friends!

K: Our question today is from Vazek, who is eleven years old from Český Krumlov, Czech Republic.

S: Hi Kiki and Mr. Suits, could you tell us which fruit is a fruit and which vegetable is a vegetable?

K: Yes! Ready to learn about fruits and vegetables?

Theme

S: What is a fruit? What is a vegetable? How can we tell, Kiki?

K: Mr. Suits, it is all about this: Seeds or no seeds?

S: Really? Haha! So, fruits have seeds, and vegetables do not have seeds?

K: That's right! For example, broccoli and carrot have no seeds, so they are?

S: Vegetables.

K: Yes.

S: So, onions and garlic are vegetables too.

K: Yes! And tomatoes?

S: They are vegetables too, of course.

K: Do they have seeds?

S: Yes! So, they are a fruit?

K: Yes, tomatoes are a fruit.

S: Oh! Ok, I get it now. Kiki, which vegetables are green?

K: Salad, broccoli, zucchinis are green...

S: Hm! Hm... But zucchinis have seeds!

K: Oops. You are right, I guess they are a fruit!

S: Spinach, celery, peas, kale... Most of the vegetables are green.

K: Not all of them. Potatoes, mushrooms, garlic, onions are all white and yellow.

S: Or beige? This means that a melon, a lemon, a lime, an orange, and apples are fruits.

K: Yes, and all the delicious berries!

S: Mmm. Strawberries, blueberries!

K: Raspberries. What is your favorite vegetable?

S: Broccoli. What is your favorite vegetable?

K: Carrot. What is your favorite fruit?

S: Raspberries. What is your favorite fruit?

K: Apples and bananas.

S: Really? I like that song.

(I like to eat, eat, eat, apples and bananas)

Story

S: Woohoo! It's story time.

K: This story is about a clever boy and a special pot of soup.

There once was a boy visiting a village. He was very hungry but did not know anyone. He had a pot, but no food to put in it. He saw a villager.

BOY: Excuse me, do you have any food for me?

VILLAGER: Sorry, I do not.

Then the boy had an idea. He went to the river and put some water into his pot and dropped a stone in it. He brought it back to the village made a fire and waited. Soon a villager said.

VILLAGER 2: What are you making?

BOY: I am making stone soup.

VILLAGER 2: Now stone soup with potatoes - that would be really nice.

And he brought some potatoes.

BOY: If only we had carrots!

A lady walking by said

LADY: I have carrots.

And soon others were saying: I have onions, I have cabbage, I have garlic +

Everyone brought a little something from their home. They even brought fruits for dessert. And they ate until they were completely stuffed.

After everyone left, a little girl said:

GIRL: Could I have your stone? I would love to eat another soup like this.

BOY: Of course, but you should know that it was not the stone that made the soup delicious. It was everyone coming together to make it.

THE END
