

33. CHRISTMAS SONGS

Welcome song

K: Welcome to our fun learning radio broadcast with Kiki and Mr. Suits!
This program was created in collaboration with Azyzah Educational and Interactive Theatre.

S: Nice to meet you friends!

K: Our question today is from Matouz who is 10 years old, from Varnsdorf, Czech Republic.

S: Hi Kiki and Mr. Suits, could you tell us about Christmas songs?

K: Yes! Ready to learn about Christmas songs?

S: Let's go!

Theme

K: You better watch out!

S: You better not cry! Cause

S+K: Santa Claus is coming to town!

K: I love that song!

S: Me too, one of my favorite Christmas songs ever.

K: Friends, the first Christmas songs ever were recorded like 2000 years ago. Like the song Angel Hymn.

S: Yes, that is a beautiful hymn. It sounds a little like this: Oh, ooooh, oooooh!

K: Yes, exactly like that. Most of these songs came from Rome and were all about the coming of baby Jesus.

S: Yeah, now, the songs we know are a little different, right Kiki? Like a little bit more rock and roll. Jingle bell, jingle bell, jingle bell rock

K: Jingle bells ring as the jingle bells swing. . Yeah.

S: Or about Santa Clause and his reindeer.

K: Rudolph, the red nosed reindeer had a very shiny nose - Or my favorite: Frosty the snowman

S: Yes, Frosty. And we love to play in the snow! Winter is so much fun. I actually wish we could sing Christmas songs all year round, Kiki, and not just in December.

K: Well, we can. There is no law saying we can only sing Christmas songs at a certain time.

S: Really?

K: Yes, really.

S: That's great news.

K: Friends, why don't you send us your favorite Christmas songs? We would love to sing them with you.

S: Till then... Fa la la la

K: La la la!

Story

S: Woo-hoo! It's story time

K: Today's story is about Rudolph, the red nosed reindeer. Every year in the North Pole, Santa, his elves and the reindeer get ready to go on their biggest journey of the year. It's Christmas Eve

(S)SANTA: Ho, ho, ho! We must repair the sleigh and make sure all the reindeer get lots and lots of rest before tomorrow night. Right, Mama Clause?

(K)MAMA: Yes, I made some amazing grass sandwiches for them and some cookies for you and the elves.

(S)ELF: Yummy, I cannot wait.

K: In the barn, the elves were picking on one of the new reindeer.

(S)E1: Look at the new reindeer. His nose is red.

(K)E2: Hey, have you been drinking?

(S)E1: Let's call him Rudolph.

(K)E2: Rudolph the red nosed reindeer Drinking beer!

(S)Rudolph: I am not drinking, I just have a shiny nose! It's not funny.

K: Rudolph cried himself to sleep. In the evening when Santa woke up...

(S)SANTA: Ho, ho, oh no, there is so much fog! How will we ever find our way? Reindeer, what are we going to do?

K: Rudolph came out from behind everyone and saidō

(S)Rudolph: I have a shiny nose. Maybe I could guide your sleigh, Santa.

K: All the reindeer laughed at him.

(S)R1: Come on, Reddy, be quiet.

(K)MAMA: No, Rudolph is right. He will lead the way.

(S)SANTA: Ho, ho, ho! He will be my guiding light.

K: And this is how Rudolph the red nosed reindeer saved Christmas that year.
